Burn the Flags. Pile up the flags and cart them out Behind the White House on the lot, Have all the mighty chiefs about To see them burn instead of rot.

'Tis true, they cost much blood to win Blood drawn from both the blue and grey: But that ought not to weigh a pin Compared with politics to day!

Burn the flags, they breed contention : Pile up the tattered relies high ; Peace! the word, and not Dissension! Let all by-gones forever die. Who wants the banners? not the grey

Their caues is dead ; forever gone 'Twas buried on App'mattox day, When ranks were seared and bodies worn. Who wants the banners? not the blue;

Their cause is gained, their vict'ry won; They've been magnanimous and true; They've won the field and spiked the gun. Then burn the flags, their glory's dead,
Buried by both the blue and grey;
Fill up the grave and o'er it spread
The robe of Peace and Charity. XXX.

EXTRAORDINARY POKER IN PARIS.-ODE of the most extraordinary games of poker on record was played in Paris last week at a private house. The ante was a louis and New York...... 6 20 " 3 20 " + 4 50 " 6 20 " the game unlimited. Late in the evening hands were dealt in which one of the players, a Frenchman, raised the ante and drove out all the players except one, an American, who raised his opponent. Over 100,000 francs were in the pool before either party drew. The Frenchman drew one card; the American stood pat. The American bet 10,000 francs; the Frenchman raised the bet 100,000 Francs, the release trained this 100,000, and thus the betting proceeded until there were I. O U.'s on the table for 2,000,000 francs. The American then raised the bet 500,000 francs, warning him not to raise in turn, as he was sure he had the winning hand. The Frenchman thereupon called, laying down four aces. The American had a straight flush, king high. The money was paid next day.—Paris Morning News.

"I Love Her Better than Life."

Well, then, why don't you do something to bring back the roses to her cheeks and the light to her eyes? Don't you see she is suffering from nervous debility, the result of female weakness? A bottle of Dr. Pierce's "Fayorite Prescription" will brighten those pale cheeks and send new life through that wasting form. If you love her, take Alexandria Gazette.

The GAZETTE is now the oldest paper to the State, and with few exceptions the oldest in the country, and its usefulness be been demonstrated and appreciated during the EIGHTY-SEVEN YEARS of its existence. In its columns has always been found a mirror of passing events, and the careful chronicling of the history of what is going on in the world has ever been its aim. It is always welcomed in the household, while in the counting room and workshop it has become

The GAZETTE has better facilities for obtaining news than any paper outside of the national capital. Situated as it is so close to the great centre of news, it enjoys daily the benefit of the Associated Press dispatches from every part of the world ; hence its patrons can read from its columns in the evening what has transpired that day in every portion of our own domain as well as from every part of the habitable globe. Consequently it is an every day occurrence for the GAZETTE to publish telegrams from the various European capitals twelve and fifteen hours earlier than the morning pa-

Another feature that serves to make the GAZETTE a great desideratum with me chants is its afternoon market reports from New York, Baltimore, Chicago and other

The local department furnishes a full and complete history of everything that occurs n and near the city, and this feature will, as ever, receive careful attention.

Correspondence from Washington, Richmond and every section of the State, is published regularly, and all events of interest occurring within the bounds of the Commonwealth are to be found in the columns

The GAZETTE's circulation is steadily in creasing, especially among people who con sult its advertising columns before purchasing. That this is self-evident may be infer red from the fact that a large country edition-nearly as large as the daily-is sent FINE PERFUMERY.
